

The Sheva Brachot Project

The Sheva Brachot (Hebrew for “Seven Blessings”) are the traditional Jewish prayers offered to the bride and groom on their wedding day. We are extraordinarily grateful to have people in our lives who have inspired us to become more deeply ourselves, encouraged us to take life-transforming risks, and guided us along the path to becoming the people we are today. Our family, friends, mentors, colleagues, and teachers have been our greatest blessings.

In the tradition of the Sheva Brachot, we’ve asked seven of our greatest role models to bless us as we begin to write the story of the rest of our lives. Displayed on this table are their blessings.
