HA'ATZMAUT

הַגְּדַת הַעֲצֵמָאוֹת

A Picnic Celebration of Yom Ha'atzmaut

Celebrate Yom Ha'atzmaut with an innovative new ritual revolving around a picnic seder, and featuring a newly written haggadah that draws on Israel's Declaration of Independence. Use this list of questions in conjunction with the Yom Ha'atzmaut Haggadah, text from Israel's Declaration of Independence, and seder packing list. We recommend printing out this list and bringing it with you to your picnic. Download the accompanying materials at www.jewishrecon.org/resource/yh-seder.

Questions

These questions can guide your discussion in each section of the haggadah. Print them out and tape them to the table for reference or save them to your tablet or phone. When the haggadah prompts you to discuss a section of the Declaration, refer to the questions below.

Before reading the text: Review the questions so they can guide your listening.

After reading the text: Once you've read the text and enjoyed food and song, discuss the questions together.

1. What did you learn that was new? What surprised you?
2. What do you want to know more about?
3. For this passage to be fulfilled, what is your hope or dream?
